

FEE SEMINAR FOR HOMESCHOOL STUDENTS

Entrepreneurs, Enterprises, and the Environment: Reforming Environmental Policy

Bruce Rottman, Gregory Rehmke, Guest Speaker

October 9-10 • Friday, 9th: 1:30 am-8 pm, Sat. 10th: 9 am-4 pm

Harvest Community Church, 6612 South Howell Ave., Oak Creek, WI

Seminar fee: $20/person (siblings $10, parents free)

Register: www.economicthinking.org/register (or grehmke@gmail.com)

- Friday 1:30 About The Foundation for Economic Education
1:40 - 2:30 The Economic Way of Thinking - Bruce Rottman
2:40 - 3:30 Eco•nomics and The Prosperity Paradox - G. Rehmke
An introduction to the economics of environmental issues. Are there alternatives to environmental regulations?

3:40 - 5:30 Break-out Sessions

5:30 - 6:30 Dinner

6:30 -8:00 After dinner session

- Saturday 9am - 4pm
• Entrepreneurs, Enterprises and the Environment Both for-profit and nonprofit enterprises can solve environmental problems. Clear and enforceable property rights, along with the rule of law are key to environmental progress.
• Saving Fisheries and Forests the free-market way.
• Understanding Common Law for the Environment
• Politicized Energy and Environmental Policies
• Economic & Public Choice Analysis of Debate Cases
• Overview of Affirmative Cases and Economic Analysis
• Other sessions to be announced.

4:00 pm Seminar concludes

SPEAKERS

Gregory Rehmke (right) directs homeschool and high school programs for FEE. More than 5,000 homeschool students have attended FEE workshops and seminars.

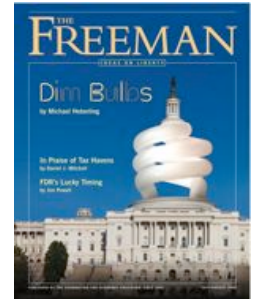

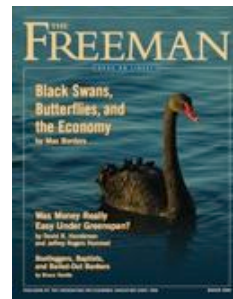

Greg is coauthor of The Complete Idiot's Guide to Global Economics.

Bruce Rottman (left) teaches history (and soon economics) at Providence Hall Academy in Santa Barbara, California. For many years Bruce taught economics and history at Brookfield Academy. He spoke at FEE's Freedom 101 Seminar this summer at Colorado Christian University.

The Foundation for Economic Education

FEE's flagship publication is available online: www.TheFreemanOnline.org

FEE Summer Seminars for Students

The Foundation for Economic Education holds summer seminars for students. Thousands of homeschool students have attended FEE Seminars. Fee.org/seminars

FEE.org and TheFreemanOnline.org are resources for speech and debate research.

FEE.org/homeschool for topic research.

Economic Thinking

Economic Thinking promotes workshops, websites, books, and videos, and offers Economics in a Box, a 16-week economics course for homeschool students:

www.EconomicThinking.org/eiab

The Property Rights and Environment Research Center

www.PERC.org Recommended for research on environmental topics.

