

Economics & Federal Revenue

Public Choice - History - Civics

New Braunfels ET Workshop

Friday, September 30, 2011 • 9 am - 4 pm • $20/student, $10 sibling.

[location to be announced]

To register or questions: Bill and Patti Davis <pdavis6@satx.rr.com>

TP Debate: Resolved: That the United States federal government should substantially reform its revenue generation policies. And LD Debate: Resolved: When in conflict, personal freedom ought to be valued above economic security.

Join us for this interdisciplinary workshop covering the intersection of economics, ethics, public policy, civics, and history. Homeschool Policy and LD students interested in federal revenue, tax policy, economic security, and personal freedom, will discuss the dynamics of tax and revenue policy through the ages. The criminal justice reform topic will also be discussed, especially in regard to criminal sanctions in federal tax legislation and regulations.

For LD students, potential freedom/security trade-offs will be discussed. Those who would give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety. Benjamin Franklin, Historical Review of Pennsylvania, 1759

Economic Thinking workshop discuss and apply economic principles, helping students understand economics and current issues, and why economic freedom, justice, prosperity, security, and stability are so misunderstood in modern America.

• Gregory Rehmke directs Economic Thinking, consults for the Institute for Economic Studies-Europe, and directs seminars for Independent Institute. He is coauthor of The Complete Idiot's Guide to Global Economics.

Over the last ten years more than 5,000 homeschool students and parents have attended Economic Thinking (and Foundation for Economic Education) workshops on the economics of national homeschool debate topics.